Human Trafficking Summit: Building a Trauma-Informed Network

This free, survivor-led Summit is being hosted by the Identifiable Me Organization in partnership with the Portsmouth Commonwealth's Attorney's Office, in the City of Portsmouth. Its purpose is to form a secure, trauma-informed network among community stakeholders in order to facilitate better identification of human trafficking and to improve the local area's response. Community stakeholders who are interested in learning more about how to support and assist trafficked individuals are invited.
